What KYRW Members have to say about Mary

"I attended her workshop in Ohio – absolutely wonderful and well worth the money."

Cathie Shaffer

"Mary is excellent. I've done an email workshop with her too. I'd love to do a face to face one with her. In fact I'm reading her book Break into fiction right now."

Teresa Reasor

DESCRIPTION OF THE WORKSHOP

How do you write great sexual tension? That's the question Mary Buckham posed to Linda Howard, Stella Cameron, Susan Andersen, Nancy Warren and more Romance writers who write great sexual tension from sweet to spicy hot.

In her full day presentation, Mary combines advice from these authors with the practical understanding of the 12 stages of Intimacy, based on Desmond Morris' works, and more recent findings by scientists on the amazing role biology plays in mate attraction and selection. Findings that can be directly incorporated in our creation of powerful sexual tension.

So if you want to learn how to increase the sexual tension in your work, step by step, don't miss this workshop!
